George Lathrop Named as Minister to Russia, Boyd Winchester to Switzerland,

While John E. W. Thompson, a Scholarly Colored Man, is Appointed Minister to Hayti.

Personal Mention of the Gentlemen so Nicely Remembered by President Cleveland.

BIG PLUMS.

Ministers to Russia, Switzerland and Hayti.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The president appointed George V. N. Lathrop, of Michigan, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Russia. Boyd Winchester, of Kentucky, consul general of the United States to Switzerland. John E. W. Thompson, colored, of New York, minister resident and consul general of the United States to Hayti.

PERSONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Dr. John E. W. Thompson, who was today appointed minister resident and consul general of the United States to Hayti, was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and is at present a resident of New York city. Dr. Thompson is a graduate of the medical department of Yale college. After leaving Yale he pursued his medical studies in Paris, where he became proficient in the French language which knowledge will serve him in his new sphere as the Haytiens are French speaking people. Thompson is a young colored man, and was highly recommended for the position by the faculty of Yale, as well as by many leading citizens of his native state. Thompson is said to have been a life long democrat.

Mr. Boyd Winchester was recently appointed United States consul to Nice, but he declined on account of the small salary, it being but $1,500 per year. The annual salary of the new position is $3,000.

Mr. Lathrop, appointed minister to Russia, is sixty-eight years of age and has been prominently identified with the legal profession. His residence is at Detroit. He met Mr. Cleveland at Buffalo after the election and his son was mentioned for patent commissioner. He has never held office and did not solicit this appointment.

Leaped Into the River.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Rev. J. H. Dally, formerly pastor of Trinity M. E. church, on York street, Jersey City, who left the ministry, confessing that he had been improperly intimate with Mrs. Stewart, a servant in his house, has committed suicide. After he left Jersey City he went to New Orleans to study medicine. He applied himself too closely, and that fact, together with his domestic troubles, undermined his health. He decided, however, to go to St. Louis and open an office, and on April 27 he boarded a Mississippi river steamer. That evening he rushed to the bulwarks and threw himself into the river. The steamer was stopped, but the body was not recovered.

A Democratic Court.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 8.—A private message from Virginia, Ill., says that all the arrangements had been made to canvass the Cass county vote today, but that State Senator Rhinehart, democrat, has arrived there and after he had consulted with the county clerk he has been given out that the canvass will be postponed for seven days, in order to ascertain if there were any irregularities and that all the other clerks in the district have consented to the postponement. Senator Rhinehart had a consultation with a number of democratic members of the legislature before leaving Springfield.

Trunk Line Rates Reduced.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, May 8.—Advisors received here last evening state that the trunk lines have decided to reduce the rates on cattle to a basis of 30 cents from Chicago to New York and on sheep to 40 cents, the reduction to be effective from May 1, 1885. The regular rate on cattle has been 40 cents and on sheep 50 cents.

These rules, however, were not maintained and for this reason the reduction has been ordered by the trunk lines. The above reduction carries with it a corresponding reduction on dressed beef rates, which are 85 per cent. of cattle rates.

A FIERCE FIRE.

The Chicago Lumber Yards Ablaze.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Ill., May 8.—A fire is raging fiercely on the north bank of the river among the lumber yards, at the corner of Thirty-seventh and Halsted street. There are no great fears of its reaching the stock yards, owing to the direction of the wind. The fire covers four blocks.

General Grant To-Day.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, May 8.—General Grant went to sleep between 11 and 12 o'clock last night. During the night he took nourishment. He slept seven hours, waking between 7 and 8. This morning the general dressed about 9 o'clock and began arranging his notes. He will continue to work on his book to-day.

THE CROPS.

A Milwaukee Statistician's Figures.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, May 8.—A telegram from Milwaukee says that S. W. Talmadge, the crop statistician, has prepared the following information concerning the present condition of the wheat crop, which he has received during the past twenty-four hours from the officials and authorities of the states named: Viz—Kentucky, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Maryland, California, Wisconsin, Iowa, West Virginia, Dakota, Alabama, Georgia, New York, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Virginia, Nebraska, Minnesota and Tennessee.

The reports, as a whole, show the winter wheat to be in a very unpromising condition, and notwithstanding that recent rains and warm weather have given the plant a better appearance, no improvement can be reported in the promise of the crop. On the contrary, the good weather has just developed the actual damage done by the winter killing and other causes. Thousands of acres in large winter wheat producing states have been plowed up and other grain sown.

THE MARKETS.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

TOLEDO, May 8.—Wheat firm and active, No. 2, red, cash, May, 94; June, 94; July, 95; August, 97; year, 94; No. 2, soft, 105. Corn quiet and steady, No. 2, cash, May, 52; June, 51; July, 51; Oats dull, No. 2, nominally, 39.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, May 8.—There was an increased trading and rather strong buying of wheat at the opening on the 'change this morning, based on the estimates coming in of a very small crop, and generally discouraging advices from nearly all wheat growing districts. The market opened nearly one cent higher at 90 1/2 for June and has remained close to that figure all morning and is now a shade higher. Corn strong, in sympathy at 47 1/2 for June, Oats 1 higher, Park 7 1/2 higher. Land 2 higher.

ON THE MOVE.

Russian Troops Said to be Advancing Into the Much Coveted Afghan Country.

Germany Arouses the Suspicions of Great Britain by Her Continued Silence.

Earl Dufferin Said to be in Full Sympathy With Gladstone's Afghan Policy.

IS IT TRUE?

The Russians Advancing on Afghanistan.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, May 8.—Rumors are current in Paris of a steady and continued Russian advance in Afghanistan but it is impossible to trace them to any authentic source. They have probably originated from the news of the Russian occupation of Peshawar.

REASSURING.

LONDON, May 8.—The announcement in the St. Petersburg Official Messenger is expected to have a reassuring effect, as being the first intimation by Russia that she will send a commission to meet the English commission.

The cost of the Russian railway from Akhal to Merv is estimated to reach 16,000 miles per verst, exclusive of rails or rolling stock.

GERMANY SILENT.

LONDON, May 8.—The official news agency in Paris, which is supposed to represent the views of the French cabinet, publishes a London dispatch dwelling on the fact that throughout the dispute Germany has given no indication of the attitude she intends to assume regarding the controversy. The dispatch says that the German ambassador in London still holds as pessimistic a view of the situation as when everything looked desperate, and that the English officials still fear that Germany is unfavorably disposed toward England and is not anxious to see peace.

LONDON, May 8.—The Times continues to urge the government to persuade the ameer to allow the presence of an English garrison at Herat.

DUFFERIN SOLID.

LONDON, May 8.—The report published in the Morning Post to-day that Earl Dufferin has resigned his position as viceroy of India in consequence of the disastrous effect on British prestige in India of Gladstone's weak and timorous policy is denounced by the government officials as utterly untrue. On the contrary, they say, Earl Dufferin counsels with and approves of Gladstone's present action respecting the Russo-Afghan question.

THE RUSSIAN VERSION.

St. Petersburg, May 8.—The Moscow Gazette, with reference to the submission of the Afghan frontier difficulty to arbitration says: "It was only possible to permit the correctness of our action to be certified to by a third party. Such a course as this is not arbitration in any proper sense of the term, but simply a respectable means of terminating the incident." The Novoe Vremya and the Yornate express great pleasure that Lumsden, who they say made all the mischief, has been recalled to London.

LONDON, May 7. Previous to the ceremony of the unveiling of the bust of Coleridge, a preliminary gathering was held in the chapter house. Besides Lord Chief Justice Coleridge and Baron Houghton, there were present Lord Abinger, Canon Farrar, Robert Browning, Prof. Black and the whole Coleridge family, including the grandson and grand daughter of the poet. Many members of the house of commons, noblemen, bishops, deacons and a large number of Americans were also present. Dean Bradley and Mr. Lowell entered the chapter house arm in arm. The dean made a short speech, in which he said he heartily sympathized with the object of the meeting. Mr. Lowell replied that he would have preferred that the unveiling of the statue had been intrusted to worthy hands, but the fact that the bust is a gift of the late Rev. Dr. Mercey, of Rhode Island, through his executors, well supplies that argument of fitness, which would otherwise have been absent. He continued: "All the waters of the Atlantic can not wash out of the consciousness of either nation that we hold our intellectual property in common. The literary traditions and the fame of those who shed lustre upon our race remain an undivided inheritance. Coleridge's works are a companion and in the happiest hours of our youth and in old age recall the radiant images of youth which we have lost. There are no friends so constant as poets."

At the conclusion of Lowell's address Lord Coleridge returned thanks on behalf of the family. A crowd went to the poet's corner and Mr. Lowell formally unveiled the statue, which bears the simple inscription, "Samuel Taylor Coleridge."

The conference between Earl Granville and Baron de Staal, arranged to be held to-day at the foreign office for the purpose of formally opening the discussion on the delimitation of the Russo-Afghan boundary, was postponed, as Baron de Staal is awaiting communication on the subject from St. Petersburg. Negotiations continue on the demand of Earl Granville that Russia's assurances that her troops will not advance to Herat shall take the form of a treaty. It is reported that M. de Giers maintains that the simple expression of such intention is a sufficient pledge.

St. Petersburg, May 7.—The Russian government has decided to push the extension of the Russian railway to the Amoo Darja or Oxus river as rapidly as possible, with a view to have the construction completed to Merv by the spring of 1886.

The following announcement appears in the official Messenger: "In consequence of the divergence of views between the cabinets of Russia and England on the interpretation of the March agreement it has been decided to submit the question to the decision of an arbitrator. Meanwhile both nations have agreed to resume frontier negotiations, but on a different basis, namely—that the principal points of the frontier be fixed by previous understanding between the two cabinets. Demarcation of the frontier on the spot and the placing of indicating posts being rendered for a commission, which both powers will send in order to facilitate the work of delimitation. The outposts of both sides will not be withdrawn from their present positions until after the arrival of the joint commission, when, as fast as the direction of the frontier line is fixed, the frontier points will be occupied by the troops of both parties concerned. It will then be the duty of each to maintain order and security in its respective territory."

Important Decision.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Messrs. Higgins & Gilbert, a board of trade firm, has been thrown into consternation by a decision yesterday of United States Circuit Judge Baxter, at Cleveland, O. The firm sued an Ohio speculator, named James McCrex, for $31,650 for losses made, it was claimed, on trades ordered by him. The judge not only refused to give the Chicago firm judgment, but summarily ordered, on the other hand, that the defendant be given a verdict against the Chicago plaintiffs of $21,000. This result, growing out of a technicality in book-keeping, has disclosed to all the other members of the board that they are in imminent peril of being sued in the same way by outside customers.

Just before the McGeech lard corner collapsed in May, 1882, Higgins and Gilbert bought for McCrex a lot of lard and pork. He lost a good deal and put up $18,000 in margins. All the stuff was bought for August. Finally McCrex said he would put up no more money. Higgins and Gilbert kept the lard they ordered until August and then sold out at a loss of over $30,000. They sued for the loss. On the trial it was found that Higgins and Gilbert had very soon after purchase "trung up" the trade. It was also disclosed, however, finally for the firm, that while they had "trung up" just so much pork and lard, they had not on their books in McCrex's account substituted any new contracts after they had disposed of the originals by "trung up." It is said that all the other members of the board are substantially in the same boat. The loss of $30,000 to this concern has, however, disclosed the peril and so shocked the fraternity that there is certain to follow a complete revolution in the board of trade book-keeping.

A Striker Dead.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LEWISTON, Ill., May 8.—John Polack, the striker who received a bayonet wound in the abdomen during the skirmish Monday, is dead. The news of an additional death seems to cast a gloom over the strikers instead of exciting them to renew the trouble.

IN BIG LUCK.

The Heirs of Chief LaFontaine After Disputed Land.

All the Godfrey Indians and their kin, who reside in this and adjoining counties, are heirs of Chief LaFontaine, who died near this city in 1848. There is a big tract of land in controversy now between two families of the tribe and the Godfreys have employed Hon. Alex Taylor, of Wabash and the Messrs. Coleridge, of this city, to look after their rights. Forty years ago the heirs of Majenica, a Miami Indian in Fern, were owing a large sum of money to a man named Driver, for goods, and probably had learned something from the whites as to the manner of avoiding the payments of their debts. At any rate they acted on the suggestion of Chief LaFontaine and transferred to him a section of valuable land in Huntington county, on part of which the town of Andrews is now built.

The following year, when the Miami Indians were sent west of the Mississippi Chief LaFontaine went with them. Pim-yot-o-mah was his traveling companion. When these two were returning to their homes LaFontaine died at Lafayette, having first told Pim all about the transfer of the section of land to him by the heirs of Majenica. There are judgments and debts against the tract of land, now valued at $100,000, and the titles to property in Andrews are in dispute.

The German soldiers now residing in Fort Wayne, met last night and formed an association styled the Deutsche Krieger Verein. Charles Boehm presided at the meeting and Dr. Carl Proeger acted as secretary. The membership is thirty.

Mayor Muhler and Marshal Meyer were serenaded last night.

The entertainment was well given and gave universal satisfaction. Miss Kellogg sang in good voice and greatly pleased the large audience. Seibold's orchestra excelled all expectation and will soon be in general demand. Burns Douglass proved a strong card, receiving a hearty encore. The concert, with some changes, other attractions being added, will be repeated this evening, when parties holding tickets who were unable to get in last night will be admitted on same ticket. Col. Lukins with his quartet will positively appear to-night.

Col. D. N. Foster Abroad.

The Bluffton Times says: "The public meeting of Lew. Bailey post, at the court house last Friday night, was a pleasant affair. State Commander D. N. Foster, of Fort Wayne, was present and addressed the meeting in an entertaining manner. Quite a number of ex-soldiers from different parts of the county, besides some from neighboring counties, were present. A delegation from the post at Warren attended in a body. Before the meeting at the court house was opened, Commander Foster inspected the affairs of the post at their hall and five new recruits were mustered in. The post will soon complete arrangements for observing Memorial day in grand style."

The Largest Yet.

Yesterday one of our enterprising business men, Jacob Wilkins, who keeps a meat market at 112 Broadway, was relieved by Dr. Nichols of the largest tapeworm yet captured. It measured the enormous length of 103 feet in length, and is the finest specimen ever seen in this state. The doctor within the past ten days has removed thirteen other tapeworms measuring 33 feet in length and upwards.

To Transients and Shopmen.

I have now arranged to keep my blacksmith shop open each evening after 6 o'clock to accommodate transients and shop truckmen, who desire horse shoeing or anything in that line, after that hour.

Lawrence Barrett.

To-morrow night Lawrence Barrett the great tragedian, will appear at the Temple opera house in his new play, "Francesca da Rimini." There has been an unprecedented large sale of seats and all the indications are for a crowded house.

The story of the play is from Dante. Side by side with the immortal picture of Cenci, the divine and suffering Beatrice stands this story of the guilty love of the Italian Francesca and Paolo of Rimini. She the loveliest of Italian women, he the noblest and most beautiful of her men. Flaxman has told the story in color, Dante in immortal verse, and he who has seen the one and read the other will carry to his death the words of the guilty pair, uttered to the author of the divine comedy and his leader, and the remorseful faces of Francesca and Paolo as they appear on the canvas of the inspired painter. Lawrence Barrett takes the part of Lanciotto, the hunchback, to great perfection.

CATARRH

Diseases Tending to Consumption, Symptoms, Effects, Treatment and Cure.

Dr. Nicholls

Robinson House,

Fort Wayne, Ind.

Among the list of chronic diseases which affect the human frame Catarrh is the most prevalent, most offensive and most productive of discomfort, and of a variety of distressing and dangerous complications.

Its earliest and most prominent symptom is a discharge from the head, varying in its nature in different cases, and even in the same individuals at different times. It may be a thin, colorless, orid fluid or a gray, starch like substance. Generally, however, it is a thick purulent or mucous-purulent matter, either ash color, greenish yellow or a deep green tint occasionally streaked or flecked with blood. So copious and offensive is the discharge in many cases that the patients express their belief that their heads are one mass of corruption.

"HAWKING"

Most of the discharge passes backward, either dropping into the throat, or collecting as a tough, viscid tenacious phlegm, behind and above the soft palate in the passage between the throat and the head. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration, and creates a constant and almost insupportable desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the offensive substance into the throat by a loud inspiration through the nose, so as then to be able to eject by a disagreeable "hawking."

OFFENSIVE BREATH.

In the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, more especially when the disease assumes the form of ozema, and the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

DEFORMITY OF THE NOSE

In neglected cases, when the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath greatly increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformity, among which is the flattening of the nose.

FATAL EFFECTS OF CATARRH.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion, loss of appetite and health. Debility, deafness, paleness, lamitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affections are one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others the prominent feeling is that of melancholy and depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope in the future for himself or his affairs.

CONSUMPTION and DEATH

Catarrh affections unchecked by treatment are prone to extend by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs, thus causing consumption and death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

TREATMENT and CURE.

By the system of treatment which Dr. Nicholls has adopted and pursued for years with uniform success, a complete and permanent cure of this repulsive disorder can be effected. This he has demonstrated in thousands of cases, representing the disease in every form and all its various stages of development. His applications are made to reach the diseased parts in the most direct and positive manner, instantaneously penetrating every cell and cavity of the head communicating with the nostrils, and subjecting every portion of the membrane to the healing action of the remedy employed, with the most beneficial results, and without causing the least pain or unpleasant sensation.

So effective is this plan of medication that a single application is generally productive of decided relief. The affected cavities are thoroughly cleansed from accumulated morbid matter, the offensive smell is removed, and relief from other troublesome symptoms is almost immediately experienced. The discharge soon diminishes, irritation is allayed, the inflammation subsides, ulcerations are made to heal and finally a radical and permanent cure is effected.

All Diseases of the Eye and Ear successfully treated by Dr. Nicholls. A permanent cure guaranteed in all chronic diseases.
